MMH will not be held responsible for any losses, damages and/or injuries. All players must wear CSA approved equipment when on the ice. The Federal Privacy Legislation of 2014 requires that we now inform you about privacy of information in our office. We collect information for registration and insurance purposes and we will publish this information on team lists and to team managers, coaches and trainers. This information will be used only for the purpose of MMH and associated groups. If you have any concerns or wish your child's information be excluded from such team lists please note this on the application. Initial _____

MMH is committed to providing an environment in which all individuals are treated with respect. Members and participants of MMH shall conduct themselves at all times in a manner consistent with the values of MMH, which includes fairness, integrity, sportsmanship and mutual respect. Members and participants of MMH shall refrain from comments or behaviors which are disrespectful, offensive, abusive, racist or sexist. In particular, behavior which constitutes harassment or abuse will not be tolerated and will be dealt with by the MMH executive. There is a 24 hour cool off period for any on or off the ice complaint or concern. Members and participants must wait 24 hours before the individuals involved may discuss the complaint or concern. Failure to comply with this may result in disciplinary action which could include the member losing the privileges that come with membership in MMH, including the opportunity to participate in MMH activities and events both present and future. Initial _____

By initialing this you understand your right of choice which allows a player who lives in an area that is eligible for 2 or more centres to choose the centre he wants to play for as per the residency regulations. Once having made his choice, the player must be released before he may exercise any further choice.
